

Worksheet 1

Office Communication Intro

Task 1 – Office Communication Challenge

Work with a partner. For each phrase, discuss: Where is it used? Who says it? What does it mean?

Phrase	Where is it used?	Who says it?	Meaning in Portuguese
Can you spell that, please?
Do you have an appointment?
Please take a seat.
Can I take a message?
He's not available at the moment.
Could you repeat that?

Task 2 – Front Desk Interaction

Role-play in pairs. Student A is the receptionist. Student B is the visitor. Then swap roles.

Student A – Receptionist	Student B – Visitor
Use these prompts: • Greet the visitor. • Ask who the visitor wants to see. • Ask if there is an appointment. • Ask for the reason for the visit. • Ask the visitor to wait / sit down OR explain the problem. • Complete the visitor form (next page).	Choose one situation card. • You have an appointment with Ms Costa at 10:30. You are from Bright Office. • You are here to deliver documents for the HR department. • You want to speak to Mr Silva, but you do not have an appointment. • You are in the wrong building and need directions.

Visitor Form

Visitor name
Company / organisation
Person to see
Appointment time
Reason / message

Task 3 – Telephone Note-Taking

Part A. Listen and complete the message pad.

Caller name
Company
Reason for calling
Phone / extension
Action needed
Time / date

Part B. Now work in pairs. Student A reads one call card. Student B takes the message. Then swap.

Call Card 1	Call Card 2
Hello, this is Marta Silva from Alfa Office Supplies. I'm calling about tomorrow's delivery. Please ask Mr Costa to call me back this afternoon on extension 214.	Good morning. This is Daniel Rocha from GreenTech. I need to confirm the meeting at 11:15 with Ms Ferreira. My mobile number is 934 555 210.

Message Pad – Pair Work

Caller name
Company
Reason for calling
Phone / extension
Action needed
Time / date

Task 4 – Read, Check and Correct

Read the information below. Some details are wrong. Underline the mistakes and write the correct information in the table.

Document A – Reception Note

Visitor: Ana Sousa
Company: Bright Office
Person to see: Mr Costa
Appointment: Tuesday, 9:30
Reason: contract documents

Document B – Email

Subject: Meeting confirmation
Hello,
This is to confirm the meeting with Ms Ferreira on Wednesday at 11:45 in Room 4. Please bring the invoice file.
Best regards,
Daniel Rocha

Correct information

Wrong detail	Correct information	Source (A or B)

Task 5 – Write a Short Functional Message

Choose ONE situation and write a short message (35–60 words). Use clear and simple English.

- ☐ Leave a message for a colleague about a visitor who is waiting at reception.
- ☐ Write a short note to confirm an appointment.
- ☐ Write an internal message about a phone call you received.

To
From
Date / Time
Message

Useful language

Opening	Message ideas
This is a message for...	The visitor is waiting at reception.
I am writing to confirm...	The meeting is at...
Please note that...	Please call back when possible.

Task 6 – Self-Assessment

Tick the statements that are true for you today. Then complete the final sentence.

Statement	Yes / A little	Not yet
I can receive a visitor and ask simple questions.	☐	☐
I can take a short phone message.	☐	☐
I can check and correct basic information.	☐	☐
I can write a short functional note or message.	☐	☐
I can ask for repetition or clarification in English.	☐	☐

I need more help with: _____