

Emails II: Replies and Follow-up

Trainee Worksheet 6

Name: _____	Date: ____ / ____ / ____
My confidence today (1–5): ____	One thing I remember from last session: _____

Learning goals

Read a short workplace email and find the task.	Write a simple follow-up or reminder.
Write a clear professional reply.	Use polite and professional language.
Ask for missing information politely.	Review and improve one email.

1

Warm-up · Quick recap from last session

In pairs, answer the questions. Use English words when you can.

1. What makes a professional email clear and polite?

2. What phrases can you use to start an email?

3. What phrases can you use to finish an email?

Activity 1 · Read the email and find the task

Read the email slowly. Underline the important information. Then complete the table.

Subject: Visitor list for Friday's meeting

Dear Administration Team,

I am writing about the client meeting on Friday morning.

Could you please send me the updated visitor list by Thursday at 3 p.m.? We need the list to prepare the visitor badges and inform reception.

Could you also confirm the meeting room?

Thank you for your help.

Kind regards,

James Green

Question	Answer
Who is writing?	_____
What does he need?	_____
When does he need it?	_____
Why does he need it?	_____
What extra question does he ask?	_____

Now decide

What must your reply include? Tick the items you need.

☐ Send / attach the visitor list	☐ Confirm the meeting room
☐ Ask for the phone number	☐ Thank James Green
☐ Explain the reason for the meeting	☐ Close politely

Activity 2 · Build the reply together

A reply should answer the original email. Use the structure below to build a short, clear email.

Part	Function	Useful language
Greeting	Start politely	Dear Mr Green,
Thank you / reference	Connect to the email	Thank you for your email.
Answer 1	Give the document	Please find attached the updated visitor list.
Answer 2	Confirm information	I can confirm that the meeting will take place in Room 204.
Closing sentence	Offer help	Please let me know if you need anything else.
Sign-off	End professionally	Kind regards, Ana Silva

Model reply

Read the model. Notice how it answers both questions from the original email.

Subject: RE: Visitor list for Friday's meeting

Dear Mr Green,

Thank you for your email.

Please find attached the updated visitor list for Friday's meeting. I can confirm that the meeting will take place in Room 204.

Please let me know if you need anything else.

Kind regards,

Ana Silva

Activity 2 continued · Guided reply practice

Complete the reply with words from the box. Then compare with a partner.

Word box: email · visitor list · Room 204 · anything · Kind regards · attached

Subject: RE: Visitor list for Friday's meeting

Dear Mr Green,

Thank you for your _____.

Please find _____ the updated _____ for Friday's meeting. I can confirm that the meeting will take place in _____.

Please let me know if you need _____ else.

_____,

Ana Silva

3

Adapt it

Change three details and write a new reply. You may change the day, the room and the document.

Document:	e.g. agenda / attendance list / invoice copy
------------------	--

Day/time:	e.g. Monday afternoon / Wednesday morning
------------------	---

Room:	e.g. Room 105 / Room 305
--------------	--------------------------

Extra sentence:	e.g. Please let me know if you need anything else.
------------------------	--

Activity 3 · Follow-up and reminder language

Important idea

A follow-up is not a complaint. It is a polite reminder.

Read the direct sentences. Match or rewrite them as polite professional follow-up sentences.

Too direct	Done?	Better professional version
You didn't send the list.	☐	_____
I need the file now.	☐	_____
Answer my email.	☐	_____
Where is the document?	☐	_____

4

Support language · Follow-up emails

I am following up on my previous email. This is a kind reminder about... Could you please send... Could you please confirm...	We would appreciate receiving it today, if possible. Please let me know if you need anything else. Thank you for your help. I look forward to your reply.
