

 FINAL ASSESSMENT PACK

The Office Rescue Mission

Save the VIP Meeting!

Your role: You work in the Administration Department. Today you must read information, write a professional email, and manage a short live situation in English. Keep it clear, polite and complete.

Name:

Date:

Course:

25_TAMD03_NS

Trainer:

Daniela Silva

1

Mission evidence

Mission 1: Decode the situation — Reading and admin accuracy

Mission 2: Write the rescue email — Professional email writing

Mission 3: Handle the live situation — Front desk or telephone interaction

The golden rule

A good professional message does not need to be long or perfect. It must be clear, polite and complete.

How the mission works

Read this page carefully before you start. You may use the models and support language in this pack, but you must adapt them to the mission details.

| Mission   | What you do                                                         | Evidence                |
|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| Mission 1 | Read the briefing documents and complete the Mission Control Sheet. | Completed control sheet |
| Mission 2 | Write a professional email reply to the VIP client.                 | Final email             |
| Mission 3 | Take part in a short front desk or telephone role-play.             | Oral interaction        |

Suggested timing

| Stage                                | Suggested time |
|--------------------------------------|----------------|
| Read the mission briefing            | 5 minutes      |
| Mission 1 — Decode the situation     | 25 minutes     |
| Mission 2 — Plan and write the email | 50–60 minutes  |
| Mission 3 — Oral role-play           | 5–7 minutes    |
| Final self-check                     | 5 minutes      |

What your trainer will look for

- You understand the main information in the documents.
- Your email has a clear purpose, key information and a polite tone.
- Your speaking is functional: you ask, check, clarify and close politely.
- You use support language, but you adapt it to the situation.
- Your work is understandable, even if it is not perfect.

2

Calm assessment reminder

This is a practical communication task. Take your time. Use the information. Check your work. Ask for repetition in the oral task if you need it.

Example Mission: how to decode and reply

This example uses a different situation. Do not copy it into your final answer; use it as a model for structure and tone.

Example incoming email

Subject: Training workshop details

Dear Administration Team,

I am writing about the training workshop next Tuesday. Could you please confirm the time and room? I also need to know if visitors should report to reception first.

Thank you for your help.

Kind regards,
Sofia Almeida

| Question               | Example answer                                     |
|------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
| Who is writing?        | Sofia Almeida                                      |
| What does she need?    | Confirmation of time, room and reception procedure |
| What action is needed? | Reply with the details and instructions            |

✉ Example professional reply

Subject: RE: Training workshop details

Dear Ms Almeida,

Thank you for your email.

I can confirm that the training workshop is next Tuesday at 10:00 in Room 102. Please report to reception when you arrive.

Please let me know if you need any further information.

Kind regards,
 Ana Silva

3

💡 Why this reply works

- It starts politely and refers to the previous email.
- It answers all the questions: day, time, room and reception instructions.
- It is short, clear and professional.
- It ends with a polite closing and sign-off.

Support Language Toolbox

Use these phrases during the mission. Choose only what you need.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  Replying to an email Thank you for your email.Thank you for your message.I am writing in reply to your email.Regarding your request, ...                                                                                                                             |  Confirming information I can confirm that ...The meeting is confirmed for ...The meeting will take place in Room ...Please report to reception when you arrive. |
|  Asking for missing information Could you please confirm ...?Could you please send us ...?Could you please let me know ...?We still need ...                                                                                                                          |  Following up politely I am following up on ...This is a kind reminder about ...Could you please reply when possible?We would appreciate your reply.             |
|  Telephone phrases Good morning. Administration Department. How can I help you?Who's calling, please?Could you repeat that, please?Could you spell that, please?Let me repeat that.                                                                              |  Front desk phrases Good morning. How can I help you?Who are you here to see?Do you have an appointment?Please sign in here.Please take a seat.             |
|  Directions Go to the first floor.Take the lift on your left.Turn right.It is next to the meeting room.It is at the end of the corridor.                                                                                                                       |  Closing politely Thank you for your help.Please let me know if you need anything else.I look forward to your reply.Kind regards,Best regards,            |
|  Useful sentence frame for your email Dear Ms/Mr _____, Thank you for your email. I can confirm that _____. The meeting will take place in _____. Could you please _____? Please let me know if you need anything else. Kind regards,_____ |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |

Mission Briefing: Save the VIP Meeting!

Your role

You work in the Administration Department at Brightway Solutions. A VIP client from OceanLine Ltd. is coming for a meeting with Ms Costa. There are last-minute updates. Your mission is to keep the information clear and professional.

Document 1 — Client email

Incoming email

Subject: Meeting with Ms Costa

Dear Administration Team,

I am writing about my meeting with Ms Costa next Thursday at 10:00.

Could you please confirm the meeting room and tell me where I should report when I arrive? I may arrive with one colleague, but I will confirm the name later.

Thank you for your help.

Kind regards,

Maria Collins

OceanLine Ltd.

5

Document 2 — Meeting schedule

| Time  | Visitor / Company              | Person to see      | Original room |
|-------|--------------------------------|--------------------|---------------|
| 10:00 | Maria Collins — OceanLine Ltd. | Ms Helena Costa    | Room 204      |
| 11:30 | Bright Office Supplies         | Finance Department | Room 105      |
| 14:00 | West Travel Agency             | Mr Rui Santos      | Room 112      |

Document 3 — Urgent internal update

Internal note from Reception

Room 204 is not available next Thursday. The VIP meeting with OceanLine Ltd. must move to Room 305. All visitors must report to reception first, sign in and collect a visitor badge. Important: reception needs the final name of the second visitor by Wednesday at 3 p.m. to prepare the badge.

Mission 1 — Decode the situation

Read the three documents again. Complete the Mission Control Sheet. Use short answers. Accuracy is more important than long sentences.

| Information needed                   | Your answer |
|--------------------------------------|-------------|
| VIP visitor name                     |             |
| Company                              |             |
| Person to see                        |             |
| Meeting day and time                 |             |
| Original room                        |             |
| Correct room after the update        |             |
| Where must visitors report first?    |             |
| What information is still missing?   |             |
| Deadline for the missing information |             |
| Main action needed                   |             |

Mission 1 self-check

| Check before moving on                                | Tick                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| I found the correct room, not only the original room. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| I found what information is missing.                  | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| I know what I must write in the email.                | <input type="checkbox"/> |

✉ Mission 2 — Write the professional rescue email

Write a professional reply to Maria Collins. Your email should solve the situation clearly and politely.

Your email must include:

- a suitable subject line;
- a greeting;
- a thank-you or reference to Maria's email;
- confirmation of the meeting day and time;
- the updated/correct meeting room;
- instructions to report to reception first;
- a polite request for the missing colleague name and the deadline;
- a polite closing and sign-off.

7

Plan before you write

| Email part                  | Your notes |
|-----------------------------|------------|
| Subject line                |            |
| Greeting                    |            |
| Purpose / thank you         |            |
| Confirmed details           |            |
| Updated room                |            |
| Reception instruction       |            |
| Missing information request |            |
| Closing                     |            |

🔗 Support template — use it if you need it

Subject: RE: Meeting with Ms Costa

Dear Ms Collins,

Thank you for your email.

I can confirm that your meeting with Ms Costa is _____. The meeting will take place in _____.

Please report to reception when you arrive. Could you please confirm _____ by _____?

Please let me know if you need any further information.

Kind regards,

_____

 Write your final email here

Write clearly. You can use the model and phrase bank, but adapt the information to this mission.

Subject:

Email body:

Quick email checklist

| Before submitting, check:                     | Tick                     |
|-----------------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| My email has a subject line.                  | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| I used a polite greeting.                     | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| I confirmed the correct time and room.        | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| I gave the reception instruction.             | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| I asked for the missing information politely. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| I used a polite closing.                      | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Mission 3 — Handle the live situation

Your trainer will tell you which oral mission you will do. You may use the support language below. The goal is not to be perfect; the goal is to communicate clearly and professionally.

Option A — Front desk role-play

A visitor arrives for the VIP meeting. You are the receptionist.

You must:

- greet the visitor;
- ask who they are here to see;
- check the appointment details;
- ask the visitor to sign in;
- explain the room update if needed;
- ask the visitor to wait or give directions;
- close politely.

Possible complication: the visitor arrives with a colleague and the colleague's name was missing from the list.

Option B — Telephone role-play

A caller phones the Administration Department about the VIP meeting. You answer the call.

You must:

- answer professionally;
- ask who is calling;
- identify the reason for the call;
- ask for repetition or spelling if needed;
- confirm key information;
- take a message or give the correct information;
- close politely.

Possible complication: the caller gives the colleague's name quickly or asks about the room change.

Mini script skeleton — Front desk

Use and adapt

Receptionist: Good morning. How can I help you?

Visitor: I'm here for a meeting with _____.

Receptionist: Could I have your name, please?

Visitor: _____.

Receptionist: Thank you. Let me check the schedule.

Receptionist: Your meeting is at _____ in Room _____. Please sign in here.

Receptionist: Please take a seat / Go to _____.

Receptionist: Thank you. Have a nice day.

10

Mini script skeleton — Telephone

Use and adapt

Receptionist: Good morning. Administration Department. How can I help you?

Caller: Hello. This is _____. I'm calling about _____.

Receptionist: Could you repeat/spell that, please?

Receptionist: Let me check. I can confirm that _____.

Receptionist: Let me repeat that: _____. Is that correct?

Caller: Yes, thank you.

Receptionist: Thank you for calling. Goodbye.

Useful clarification phrases

- Sorry, could you repeat that, please?
- Could you speak more slowly, please?
- Could you spell that, please?
- Let me check that.
- Let me repeat that.
- Is that correct?

Mission Complete — Final self-check

Before you submit your written work, complete this final check.

| Mission badge                                                                                                                                                                               | Evidence                                                 | Tick                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|
|  Information Detective                                                                                     | I found the key information in the documents.            | <input type="checkbox"/> |
|  Email Professional                                                                                        | I wrote a clear and polite email.                        | <input type="checkbox"/> |
|  /  Communication Handler | I completed the oral role-play.                          | <input type="checkbox"/> |
|  Problem Solver                                                                                            | I handled a change, missing information or complication. | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Assessment focus

| Part      | Focus                                                      | Weight |
|-----------|------------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Mission 1 | Reading comprehension and admin accuracy                   | 25%    |
| Mission 2 | Email structure, clarity, tone and complete information    | 40%    |
| Mission 3 | Oral interaction, checking information and polite language | 35%    |

Reflection

One phrase I used today:

One thing I did well:

One thing I still need to practise:

Final reminder

You have practised all of these skills during the UFCD. Read the information carefully, keep your English simple and professional, and use the support language when needed.
Mission complete!